Grayson

Sorry it has taken so long to write you. I did not have any stamps and today was the first time I have been to commissary in a month.

Did you put some money on my books? I noticed extra money. If you did, thank you. I certainly need it. I have to buy all new appliances, which is going to run me about $60.

Grayson, this place is amazing. It is a therapeutic community, think drug rehab/classroom/medical place. It is nothing like prison. We wear scrubs, too!

They told me that, provided I "work the program", I will be home on, exactly, November 18, 2015. Can you believe it? This Hell is almost over.

This is my second chance in life, Grayson. I will write you a longer letter later. I am exhausted, tonight. I miss you so much! I love you, Grayson.

Love,
Damon
